By giving the following a place in your impartial Gazette, you will oblige

A SUBSCRIBER. In your Gazette of Tuesday last, you are pleased to censure the conduct of Captain-Nathan Haley, of the ship Hare , but, as I conceive, upon a principle not sufficiently warranted, from a fair construction of his . own letter to Mr. Isaac Clason, dated Diting revenge of his infernal enemies, (the British, of course) and that when he returned with the Commission, it was his intention day's Mercury. has failed from Marble- generally enjoyed a better state of health than Mr. Pitt replied, that matters were now BURY, the seat of the late John Cox, Esq. getting the command of the Hare from Mr. head.
