Key Terms - Chapter 1

Across
1. Person who designs products or services and creates knowledge for the organization (2 words)
2. Streams of raw facts
3. Output returned to appropriate members of the organization
4. Person who processes an organization's paperwork (2 words)
5. Use of Internet and digital technology to execute all business processes (2 words)
6. Management Information Systems
7. Requires broad-based understanding of information systems (3 words)
8. Rests on accepted and fixed definitions of data and procedures, operating with pre-defined rules (2 words)
9. Additional assets required to derive value (2 words)
10. Distribution of processed information
11. Links two or more computers to share data or resources
12. Marketplace created by computer and communication technologies that links buyers and sellers (2 words)
13. Organization where nearly all significant business processes are digitally enabled, and corporate assets are managed digitally (2 words)
14. WWW (3 words)
15. Monitors day-to-day activities of an organization (2 words)
16. Information systems that automate flow of information across organizational boundaries (2 words)
17. Integrated components working together to collect, process, store, and disseminate information in an organization (2 words)
18. Design of information technology for an organization to achieve its goals or functions (2 words)
19. Process of buying and selling goods and services electronically (2 words)
20. Ways that organizations coordinate and organize work activities, information, and knowledge to produce a product or service (2 words)
21. Capacity to offer individualized products and services on a large scale (2 words)
22. Knowledge of information technology (2 words)

Down
2. Streams of raw facts
4. Person who processes an organization's paperwork (2 words)
5. Use of Internet and digital technology to execute all business processes (2 words)
6. Management Information Systems
8. Rests on accepted and fixed definitions of data and procedures, operating with pre-defined rules (2 words)
9. Physical devices and software that link various computer hardware components and transfer data from one location to another (2 words)
11. Links two or more computers to share data or resources
12. Marketplace created by computer and communication technologies that links buyers and sellers (2 words)
13. Organization where nearly all significant business processes are digitally enabled, and corporate assets are managed digitally (2 words)
14. WWW (3 words)
15. Monitors day-to-day activities of an organization (2 words)
16. Information systems that automate flow of information across organizational boundaries (2 words)
17. Integrated components working together to collect, process, store, and disseminate information in an organization (2 words)
18. Design of information technology for an organization to achieve its goals or functions (2 words)
19. Process of buying and selling goods and services electronically (2 words)
21. Ways that organizations coordinate and organize work activities, information, and knowledge to produce a product or service (2 words)
23. Knowledge of information technology (2 words)